HELEN S. STRIKES AGAIN!!!!

She again forces a new employee to flee for her life from her job in the Astoria Office. "She never knew what hit her. I'm so subtle and clever, she thinks it's her fault, when actually I made the job so difficult that no one could handle it.

When I make people leave there's no crying, no grievances, no lawsuits; I should get a commissioner's citation."
